

Cold Haily Windy Night

Trad. England
Arr. Mae McAllister

1. Oh my hat it is fro-zen___ to my___ head My feet are like two lumps___ of lead Oh my shoes they're fro-zen to my___ feet With

1. Oh my hat it is fro-zen___ to my___ head My feet are like two lumps___ of lead Oh my shoes they're fro-zen to my___ feet With

1. Oh my hat it is fro-zen___ to my___ head My feet are like two lumps___ of lead Oh my shoes they're fro-zen to my___ feet With

stand-ing at your win-dow Ch: Let me in, the sol-dier cried Cold hail-y wind-y night Oh let me in, the sol-dier cried For I'll freeze un-til I'm dead oh

stand-ing at your win-dow Ch: Let me in, the sol-dier cried Cold hail-y wind-y___night Oh let___ me in, the sol-dier cried For I'll freeze un-til I'm dead oh

stand-ing at your win-dow Ch: Let me in, the sol-dier cried Cold hail-y wind-y night Oh let me in, the sol-dier cried For I'll freeze un-til I'm dead oh

2. "Oh me father he watches down on the street,
My mother the chamber keys do keep.
I know ne'er to open to them who plead
I will not let you in, no"

Ch.

3. "Oh the doors and the windows they do creak
Though my father he be sound asleep
I know ne'er to open to them who plead
I dare not let you in, no"

Ch.

4. So she's opened the window with her key
But no soldier was there to been seen
In the morn no sign was there of she Till the storm comes round again, oh

Last Ch: "Oh let me in," the young lass cries,
Cold haily windy night,
"Oh let me in," the young lass cries,
"For I'll freeze until I'm dead, oh"